ABOUT ME

Hi! I'm Hasib Hossain. You can call me Chips. I'm a web developer and a UI/UX designer. I'm not pro at this profession yet but I'm taking steps one at a time. I'm still a student studying in college but I'm currently focusing on my carrier—fun thing about me, I love kitties but they freak me out.

EDUCATION

Senior School Certificate
NASCK | 2021 - 2022

- Science as background subject

Higher School Certificate
DCC | 2022 - 2023

- Computer Science as background subject

WORK EXPERIENCE

Web Developer and UI/UX Designer

- I didn't work for an organization yet. I'm still working on side projects and clients. I'm growing my skills as high as possible before applying for a certain company or organization.
